

leaving a LEGACY

Saturday, November 8, 2008 • 7:30am-1:00pm

Neumann College Meagher Theatre, Thomas A. Bruder, Jr. Life Center, One Neumann Drive, Aston, PA 19014

Agenda

7:30am-8:15am

Registration and refreshments

8:15am-9:00am

“Leaving a Legacy”

Speaker: Mark Houck

9:00am-10:00am

Mass

*Celebrated by his Excellency,
Bishop Joseph McFadden*

10:15am-11:00am

“Man’s Role in Building a Culture of Life”

Speaker: Chris Godfrey

11:00am-11:45am

Break

- Reflection/Discussion
- Sacrament of Reconciliation
- Visit Ministry Tables

Refreshments will be served.

11:45am-12:45pm

“Confessions of a Former Saint”

Speaker: Danny Abramowicz

12:45pm-1:00pm

Sendoff/Challenge

Spend a Saturday morning with other Catholic men and hear from the following speakers:

Mark Houck: “Leaving a Legacy”

Former All-American College Football Player and Co-Founder/President of The King’s Men

Chris Godfrey: “Man’s Role in Building a Culture of Life”

Former All-Pro Offensive Line-man for the New York Giants and President of Life Athletes

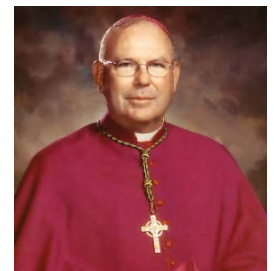

Danny Abramowicz: “Confessions of a Former Saint”

Former NFL Coach and All-Pro Wide Receiver of the New Orleans Saints and Host of EWTN’s “Crossing the Goal”

Mass Celebrant: The Most Reverend Joseph P. McFadden, D.D., V.G.

Auxiliary to the Archbishop of Philadelphia

Fee: General: $10 - Students: Free

RSVP: by 10/31/08 to Mark Houck at mark@thekingsmen.org or 267-980-5507

Sponsors: The King's Men, Knights of Columbus, and Center for Sport, Spirituality and Character Development (Neumann College)